ENTREPRENEURSHIP DEVELOPMENT AND EMPLOYMENT GENERATION IN LIVESTOCK FARMING

Dr. Rajesh Kumar

Livestock plays a major role in enhancing the income of farmers in combination with agriculture. As per current scenario in Indian economy, livestock is the back bone of the agriculture because for the livestock there is no need of extra feed grown. It totally depends on the byproduct of agriculture. Approximately 20.5 million people depend on livestock for their source of income. An average of 14% of all rural households, livestock contribute 16% to the income of small farm households. Two-third of rural population gets livelihood through livestock. Livestock provides employment to approximately 8.0% of the population in India. India has huge livestock resources. The livestock provides the following benefits:

- Food: The livestock provides Milk, Meat, and Eggs for human consumption which is highly nutritious.
- Wool: The livestock especially Sheep, Goat and Rabbit contribute to the production of best quality wool and hair.
- Drought Animals: Bullocks are very useful in Indian agriculture. For various agricultural operations in rural areas, farmers still depend upon bullocks. By use of bullocks we can save a lot of fuel which is a necessary input for using mechanical power like tractors, combine harvesters etc.
- Capital Resource: During emergencies and drought condition livestock serve as capital for landless agricultural labours.
- Role of livestock in farmers’ wealth: In mixed farming system livestock plays a significant role in the wealth of farmers. The livestock serve the farmers in following ways.
- Income: Livestock is a source of income for many families by providing regular income to the livestock farmers through sale of meat, egg and by products like skin, hair and bones etc. during emergencies like treatment of sick persons, children education, repair of houses etc. specially poultry serve as sources of regular income and provide economic security to the farmers.
- Employment: Most of people in India depend upon agriculture for their livelihoods. Since agriculture is seasonal in nature, it cannot provide employment throughout in a year. The landless and less land people depend upon livestock for utilizing their labour during drought season.
- Social Security: Establishment of poultry farms and rearing of animals offer social security to the owners in terms of their status in the society.

Objectives
1. Sustainable growth and development of livestock sector, including poultry
2. Establishing convergence and synergy

Media today has become a primary source of information for the people of the country, with the invasion of different platforms of Media, people today can switch to Television, Print and Internet for information, and this trend is growing day by day, with the DTH, Print (mainly Newspapers and Magazines) and the most easily available of them all the Internet there are almost limitless opportunities to the future generations in the field of Media Management, this article of mine focuses on the opportunities that this exciting as well as challenging field offers.

There was a time when only Radio, Newspapers and Journals etc. were the main sources of information for the society at large. Now electronic media is progressing well in the Country, so nature and scope of media is also changing. In present day scenario, Media has its own role in the Social and Economic development of the Country. In India, media plays an important role in affecting the mindset of the people. People watch television and they tend to adopt many things which they see on television. Media is responsible for the coverage of India’s growth in all aspects. It tells about the economic growth, local development, latest projects and government involvement in all what is possible. The role of media cannot therefore be denied in the growth of the nation.

The Indian Media and Entertainment (M&E) industry is a sunrise sector for the economy and is making high growth strides. Proving its resilience to the world, the Indian M&E industry is on the cusp of a strong phase of growth, backed by rising consumer demand and improving advertising revenues. The industry has been largely driven by increasing digitization and higher internet usage over the last decade. Internet has almost become a mainstream media for entertainment and information for most of the people.

India’s media consumption has grown at a CAGR of 9 per cent during 2012-18, almost nine times that of US and two times that of China. The Indian advertising industry is projected to be the second fastest growing advertising market in Asia after China.

Nearly 40 per cent of our ‘media interactions’ take place on smart phones, as smartphone users spend close to 160 minutes (source: Nielsen Mobile Informatics Insights) on their mobile phones, which is higher than the time they spend on TV.

WHAT IS MEDIA MANAGEMENT?
Media is a very broad term and media industry currently ranges from radio, television, film, music, multimedia, online/digital media and publishing to fine arts, advertising, public relations, journalism, e-commerce, etc. and even the management portion is also included in it.

With technological convergence the media and communications professionals have to face diverse challenges of the digital age. Therefore, it is necessary to understand some of the areas of work in this field in order to be able to identify which will be the most suitable course to select.

CAREERS IN MEDIA MANAGEMENT

Media management is actually an area of business administration that deals with organizing and supervising teams of media professionals, various mass communication channels and technologies, media and entertainment productions, and more. It is a specialized area of business administration which teaches the students about development, planning, functioning and brand-building of media enterprises.

This also includes managing talent for media professionals - many kinds of talent including actors, artists, writers and musicians.

Media Managers specialize in promoting talent to industry professionals, allowing the talent to focus on work aside from the pressure of monetary demands of the entertainment industry.

Media managers handle the complete campaign planning, and implementation strategies to build businesses and brands. Media managers campaign on all media platforms: Digital, Print, broadcast (TV and Radio), Cinema, Direct Marketing and Ambient media. They apply organizational theory and management principles to the handling of suppliers, competitors, employees, and customers.

This may involve market research and design, special events and sales promotion, public relations and publicity for media related products and services.

Today's media manager needs to think more creatively. In fact, media managers now also look after a brand's online reputation management too. And have to deal with practically every department at the client's end.

The media manager's job is not only about creating media plans but also managing the business aspect. They now need to deal with many new people like the CEOs of companies, procurement heads, head of legal, online publishers like Yahoo!, mobile ad exchanges, digital marketing agencies and so on. Digital media offers interactivity and engagement. Conventional media continues to offer reach and loyalty. A successful media manager will perhaps be the one who can draw from the best of both.

PM Modi and UK PM Boris Johnson hold Virtual Summit
Prime Minister Narendra Modi and his UK counterpart Boris Johnson held a Virtual Summit on May 4, 2021. An ambitious ‘Roadmap 2030’ was adopted at the summit to elevate bilateral ties to a ‘Comprehensive Strategic Partnership’. The two Prime Ministers launched an ‘Enhanced Trade Partnership’ (ETP) to unleash the trade potential between the 5th and 6th largest economies of the world and by setting an ambitious target of more than doubling bilateral trade by 2030. As part of the ETP, India and the UK are on a roadmap to negotiate a comprehensive and balanced FTA, including consideration of an interim Trade Agreement for delivering early gains. The Roadmap will pave the way for a deeper and stronger engagement over the next ten years in the key areas of direct and indirect job opportunities, people to people contacts, trade and economy, defence and security, climate action and health in both the countries.

PM authorises keys decisions to boost availability of medical personnel to fight COVID-19
Prime Minister Narendra Modi, on May 3, 2021, reviewed the growing need of adequate human resources for responding to the COVID-19 pandemic in the country and decided on several decisions to boost the needs of medical personnel. The medical students/professionals engaged in COVID-related work will be suitably vaccinated and all the engaged health professionals will be covered under the insurance Scheme of Government for health workers engaged in fighting Covid-19. The medical students/professionals engaged in COVID-related work will be suitably vaccinated and all the engaged health professionals will be covered under the insurance Scheme of Government for health workers engaged in fighting COVID-19. It was also decided to allow deployment of Medical Interns in COVID-19 Management and Final Year MBBS students for providing services like tele-consultation and monitoring of mild COVID cases.

Asiatic Lions housed in Hyderabad Zoo infected with SARS-CoV2 recovering well
On 4th May 2021, eight Asiatic lions housed in Nehru Zoological Park (NZP), Hyderabad were tested positive for SARS-CoV2 virus. The samples have revealed that the infection was not caused by any variant of concern. The eight lions have been isolated and due care and necessary treatment has been provided. All the eight lions have responded well to the treatment and are recovering. Preventive measures are already in place for all zoo staff and the zoo has been closed to visitors to avoid minimal external contact. Based on experience with zoo animals elsewhere in the world that have experienced SARS-CoV2 positive last year, there is no factual evidence that animals can transmit the disease to humans any further.
